DATE OF TRIAL FIXED.
The trial of Richard Pines, Eugene Dorsey, Calvin Johnson and Henry Smith, who were recently indicted for the murder of Walter F. Schultz on the confines of this city on the night of the 6th of last March, will begin in the Corporation Court on the week commencing the 23d of May. Johnson will be represented by Mr. L. H. Machen; Pines by Mr. Aylett Nicol, and Dorsey by Messrs. J. R. Oston, Jr., and H. Noel Garner. Judge Bailey having appointed the last two gentlemen this morning.

Officers Ferguson and Sampson went to Fairfax Courthouse early this morning for the purpose of conducting Pines Dorsey and Johnson to this city. They arrived on an electric train shortly before noon and placed the three men in the station house, from which place they were taken into the Corporation Court room about an hour later.

The responsiveness of the alleged murderers in Alexandria attracted but little attention, and few persons followed from the intersection of King and Royal streets at which point the officers and the four negroes left the train. There was a small gathering in front of the station when the officers with their prisoners passed in. The trio were handcuffed together.

Officers Ferguson and Sampson say the three negroes were cool and collected while on the way to Alexandria.

The prisoners were placed in the dock of the Corporation Court at 1:15 o'clock, and after court had convened Mr. Machen, counsel for Johnson, moved a severance, which was granted, and Judge Bailey announced that the prisoners would be arraigned on Tuesday, the 25th of May, and that Johnson would be tried first and afterwards Pines and Dorsey.

On motion of Commonwealth's Attorney Brent the judge directed that Dorsey be placed in the jail in this city. Pines in Alexandria county, and Johnson in Fairfax.

The prisoners were subsequently arraigned. After they arose to their feet the clerk read the indictment. All three answered "Not guilty."

Mr. Machen moved to quash the indictment and demanded to the same. The motion was overruled.

Comparatively few persons were in the court room during the proceeding, and most of them were colored.

At 2:30 o'clock Dorsey was conducted to the Alexandria jail by Officers Garvey and Beach, and Officers Ferguson and Sampson returned Johnson to Fairfax, and placed Pines in the Alexandria county jail.

"QUEEN OF THE CARNIVAL."
Tonight the contest for the "Queen of the Carnival" closes and after ten o'clock no votes will be taken. The committee will collect the ballot boxes and will count the votes at Hotel Fleischmann.

It is generally presumed that the closing hour will be marked with animation and from present indications it is only a guess to name the winner. The leading candidates are popular and the counting of the votes will be necessary to a certainty as to who will be queen. The friends of a great many candidates are anxious for the success of their choice, and it will be a case of the "longest getting the persimmon."

The following is the standing of the contestants to date:

Miss Marie Pannon 5,773
Mrs. P. Von de Westlake 4,973
Miss Whitehead 3,883
A. J. Montfort 1,634
Miss Marie Drew 1,730
Caroline Wedderburn 1,000

A STRANGE CASE.
A strange woman who gave her name as Nellie Owe and who said she came from Irvington, near Baltimore, called at the Alexandria Hospital this morning and asked for admission. She was in an extremely nervous condition and said she had reached this city on a train last night and had spent the night with a lady but could not give the name of her friend or tell where she lived. She stated that she had left her home, which was with an aunt who, she said, was driving her mad. The woman was taken care of at the hospital and efforts are being made to ascertain something about her.

Keep your feet dry. "Try a pair of the celebrated" Walk Over Shoes. J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

AMUSEMENTS.

The show given at the Opera House last night by the Guy Johnson Stock Company was without doubt one of the best comedy dramas ever seen in this city. Mr. Johnson, who is responsible for the excellent shows put on nightly, that so highly please the patrons, is a versatile comedian and producer of a first water. Vast crowds visit this popular house nightly and juring from the applause greeting each act, every one is highly pleased. Last night the entire company were obliged to respond to five curtain calls. The entire cast is strong and richly deserves the kind reception accorded by their patrons. Two more side-splitting shows tonight entitled "Siamese Twins" and "A Disappointing Surprise."

The Surprise Theatre not only keeps up the promise made but excels that which was anticipated. The hall was crowded again last night and the vaudeville and pictures at this popular theatre deserve more than has been said about them in the past. Good singing, dancing, instrumental music, etc., and good pictures are the captivating features at this house. A good time is promised those who come out tonight.

The last night of the week will be the crowning one at the Alexandria Amusement Company. The management realizing that this is the night in particular when the people come out in great numbers, have prepared an extraordinary programme of talking and motion pictures which must be seen to be appreciated. A glance at the advertisement will convince you.

The Elits will have another one of those big Saturday nights and it is expected that the usual large crowd will be on hand. In order to get a seat and see the largest pictures shown in this city it will be necessary to go early. A good show is promised.

DEATH OF O. M. GRIFFIN.
Mr. Charles M. Griffin, an old and well-known citizen, died at his home on North Pitt street at 3 o'clock this morning. The deceased was stricken with paralysis a few weeks ago, and although there were subsequent fluctuations in his condition, there was no material rally, and his death was not unexpected.

The deceased was 62 years old. He leaves a widow and several children. Mr. Griffin was the eldest son of the late Robert Griffin, who in by-gone years was captain of the Maryland ferry steamer Alice Fox and who later commanded the steamer Virginia. During the last years of the civil war the deceased was a member of the Second District of Columbia regiment which was stationed in and around Alexandria. At the close of the war he opened a barber's shop, operating the same up to a few years ago, when he embarked in the purchase and sale of second-hand articles in which business he was engaged at the time of his death. Mr. Griffin was married twice. His first wife and her two children, it will be remembered, were drowned by the burning of the river steamer Wawaset on the 8th of August, 1873. The deceased was a member of the Friendship Veterans Fire Association, Perseverance Tent of Rechabites and J. W. Jackson Council, J. U. A. M.

YE OLDE TIME MINSTRELS.
During the progress of the home-coming week festivities you can delightfully entertain your visitors Wednesday night next by taking them to the Young Men's Soladity Lyceum, where they can witness "Ye Olde Time Minstrels," which will be presented by the Lyceum Dramatic Club. Under the direction of Thomas Trodden, Jr., a former star in the minstrel business, the troupe has had ample training, as will be evidenced by the performance to be presented Wednesday. During the evening solos will be given by Messrs. P. F. Downey, Forrest Birrell, J. M. Dobie and Robert Wenzel. The Olympian quartette will also give several selections while the music will be furnished by a Washington orchestra. Tickets can be procured from members of the hall.

RED MEN.
At a regular meeting of Osceola Tribe, No. 1, Improved Order of Red Men, held in their wigwag Thursday evening, two candidates were installed. The committee on "Home-Coming Week" reported that they had secured Old Fellows' Hall for Friday, April 30, and would have an open house for all Red Men and their wives, who are cordially invited. The new costumes have arrived and members will secure them on Thursday night. Capt. A. S. Deaton was chosen marshal with power to arrange all details for the parade. His aides will be C. M. Schwab and J. A. Ewald.

CORPORATION COURT.
[Judge H. W. Harrison, presiding.]
Om. vs. T. C. Roderick, indicted for embezzling funds of the Alexandria Electric Light Co. The case was called yesterday and was given to the jury this morning. At 1:30 o'clock today the jury came into court and reported that they could not agree. The judge then told them to go to their homes for dinner and report at 2:30 this evening.

GRANDFATHERS' CLOCKS.
Ruben & Sons, at their store on the northwest corner of King and St. Asaph streets, are offering novelties for the home-coming season, among which are colonial (or grandfather's) clocks. They are offered at prices which place them within the reach of all.

T. P. A.

At the meeting in Martinsville yesterday of the State Travelers' Protective Association the following officers were elected: President, R. B. Semple, of Martinsville; first vice-president, S. J. Allan, Richmond; second vice-president, K. W. Prier, Petersburg; secretary-treasurer, H. L. Harwood, Richmond. Board of directors—J. O. Batwright, Danville; W. K. Bache, Richmond; H. Fleming, Richmond; D. W. Sale, Lynchburg; C. Manning, Norfolk; T. S. Beckwith, Petersburg; E. D. Quarles, Richmond; J. Y. Williams, Alexandria; R. H. Angell, Rannock; D. S. Quinton, Fredericksburg; R. L. Winston, Richmond. A. D. Brock, of Alexandria, was appointed chairman of the committee on railroads and J. Y. Williams as delegate to the national convention at Asheville, N. C.

STRUCK BY A TRAIN.
A team of four horses attached to a wagon belonging to Mr. W. T. Downer, of Fairfax county, and driven by Mr. George Struder was struck by an electric train on King street, near West, this evening. Mr. Struder was seriously hurt, two of the horses were injured and the wagon was damaged. Mr. Struder was taken to the hospital for treatment. The horses became frightened at the approach of the train and Mr. Struder lost control of them.

EXTRA POLICEMAN.
Another meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners was held last night for the purpose of electing three more special policemen who will perform duty next week. The commissioners selected Messrs. Samuel Whedbee, R. C. Aeton and O. C. Peltan. The board selected eight at the meeting Wednesday night but Henry Burke who was elected at that time has declined to serve.

DANCES NEXT WEEK.
The Fanchon Pleasure Club has made arrangements to have dances Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday nights of old Home-Coming Week at McBarney's Hall. Prof. Cohen's orchestra, of Washington, has been engaged, and a good time is assured all who attend.

Nineteen persons were drowned off Christians Thursday night by the sinking of the Norwegian steamer Edith after collision with the British steamer Oxford.

LOCAL BREVITIES.
The weather became clear and cool last night. The mercury in the thermometer this morning registered 43°.

Kaufmann Brothers, 402 King street, are displaying many useful and attractive articles for Home-Coming Week. They have flags, souvenirs, etc.

Mrs. Basile Ridgway, wife of Mr. Norman Ridgway, died at her home in West End last night. The deceased was a daughter of Mr. John and Mrs. Mary Bolden. She was a native of Remington, Va.

The schooner Annie Branford, from the lower river with lumber to W. A. Smoot & Co., has arrived. The barge Fannie E. McNaughton, from Baltimore with coal for the same firm, has also arrived.

The only prisoner in charge of the police this morning was a cow which had been taken in custody for appearing upon the streets of the city unaccompanied by any specimen of the genus homo. The animal was turned over to its owner. There was no session of the Police Court.

Dan Smith, colored, living near Arcturns, claimed to have found a marker belonging to the W. A. & M. V. Ry. Co. He was requested to give it up, but refused, and Special Officer Payne, of the electric railway, went after the marker, secured it and turned it over to the company.

Price of fish were firm again today. There has been no material increase in receipts at Fishtown during the past few days.

The Rammel Cafe in their advertisement beg to call your attention to the arrival of some fine soft shell crabs.

Muggsy Finnegan was a rough and tumble tough of the toughest rough and tumble district of Little Old New York. Here's what he says about the Auth Products. "De udder day me an' Mike the spike hit de dust with our Marston and trailed for de Sunny South.
